NO MORE DEAD HEADS.

The New York Legislature last session, passed an act prohibiting the free use of passes on railroads within the State. By an provision of the law all passes issued before May 1st must have been used before January 1st, 1867, or they will be void. Hereafter no one who pulled the wires to get a pass will be able to ride on it.

One of these telegraphs to his partner:

"Send me some money; five dollars will do, if sent immediately. Don't suspend the subpœna in consequence, if you can especially avoid it."

Another, rendered cryptic and profane, telegraphs his foreman:

"Sell that office stove and send on the proceeds. We don't need it in warm weather. Discharge the devil. P. S. Give our Legislature a vote of thanks for this."

A St. Lawrence County (N. Y.) editor telegraphs his assistant editor:

"If my letter isn't printed, cut out that puff of the New York Central Railroad. Give them something about 'Swindling Monopoly,' 'Dangerous Bridges,' 'Rotten Bridges,' etc. Send me ten dollars. P. S.—Take any advertisement that offers for the present, whatever its character."

The editor of the Podunk Stuffed Club telegraphs his partner:

"DEAR SAM.—Forward me at once all the money you have, even if it is only five dollars. P. S.—The editor of that binding sheet, whose name I forget, is over here. Stuffed Club have to meet our darkies, who are ready to the Opposition, when I am dared to horsewhip, if he dared to address me, has just refused me the loan of half a dollar. Get gaff! Review his disloyal course during the war in a column leader. Double leaded. Make it as able as you can. P. S.—Bring down the Stuffed Club with all its weight on the head of that Giant Monopoly, the New York Central. Pull!"

BROWN IS a married man now. A few days since he thought of taking a trip to Paris. One of his friends meeting him in the street, enquired: 'Well Brown, my boy, when are you off?' 'Next week.' 'Next week! Going to take your wife with you?' 'No; it is a voyage of pleasure.'

A NEW YORK city correspondent says that the residence of A. T. Stewart, corner of Thirty-fourth street and Fifth avenue, is nearly ready to move into. It eclipses any private building on the continent, so it is said, and will cost, with its furniture, $2,500,000.

The Daily Union Vedette.

TUESDAY MORNING, AUG. 7, 1866.

THE RECORD.

Let it go upon the record that [illegible] before yesterday, the 5th day of August, 1866, in the Tabernacle in this city, Brigham Young said:

"I HAVE LOTS, AND PROPERTY ON HAND, BUT NOT MORE THAN I WANT, AND IF ANY MAN JUMPS ANY OF THEM, I WILL SEND HIM TO HELL, so HELP ME GOD."

Some of the lots above referred to include vacant land which the Government owns and is keeping for the use of its citizens. Those citizens are every day arriving in this Territory, and under the laws of the country they will occupy vacant Government land, as they may need it, and if any one is sent to hell," it will be known who did the deed.

When Brownfield was murdered we could put our finger on the man who organized the clique that sent him to an untimely grave; we could designate the man who inoculated the doctrines that murdered him; we could tell who justified and applauded that murder; but we could not name the exact person who pulled the trigger that sent the bullet on its mission of death. But now we have the warning. Let it not be forgotten, and if any man is "sent to hell" for exercising his rights as an American citizen, we shall know exactly where to place the deed.

It may not be an impertinent question to ask how much land this arch traitor claims, about one-half of the plot of Salt Lake City, will be the answer of almost every citizen, nor does it end here, he has had the audacity to build a wall across the mouth of City Creek Cañon, and claims there a strip of land twenty miles long, which contains about the only available wood lands in the vicinity, and for every three sticks cut upon it one stick has to be deposited at the Prophet's gate, and yet "this people" pay him no salary, his services are purely gratuitous (?).

Carmichael Testimonial—Treasurer's Report.

To satisfy a reasonable curiosity on the part of the public, we publish, by permission, the subjoined correspondence and report of receipt and disposition of the funds collected for what is called the "Carmichael Testimonial":

CORRESPONDENCE.

Sarah E. Carmichael, Salt Lake City—

Miss:—As Treasurer of the "Testimonial Fund" it becomes my pleasant duty to pay over to you, hereby, the sum of five hundred and eighty-one dollars and fifteen cents ($581.15), being the net proceeds realized on the subscriptions proper to the volume of your poems recently published. A few extra copies are still to be disposed of, and gross receipts for the same will go to your benefit.

I will anticipate any expressions of gratitude on your part towards the gentlemen, who, with myself, have in a humble way been instrumental in bringing about this result, by assuring you that our labors have already been amply rewarded by the consciousness of having given the public a really meritorious book, and by the deservedly flattering reception given it by a critical press and our generous subscribers.

In behalf of the latter, I offer you this pledge of our appreciation and esteem, with sincere good wishes for your future literary advancement and general welfare.

Very respectfully, yours,
AARON STEIN, Treas'r.

S. L. C., Monday, August 6th, 1866.

Salt Lake City, Aug. 6th, '66.

Aaron Stein, Esq.—

Sir:—I acknowledge the receipt of the substantial assurance of the sympathy of friends, presented by your kind hand, with pecuniary pleasure.

I am much gratified by the handsome gift—deeply grateful to the generous donors.

To yourself and the Committee you represent, I can only say, I trust my friends will receive a more fitting reward for their kindness to me than the poor thanks I can offer them, if not in this world in that better one, where the soul is crowned by the pearls of goodness it scatters in this. I am, sir, with much respect,

Gratefully yours,
S. E. CARMICHAEL.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

To Cash on Sub-[illegible] L. T.	$1,234.50	Paid Publishers (coin) for 1,400 copies "Testimonial,"	$ 400.00
		Paid Express charges (coin)	86 60
		Paid prem. on above, ($455.50)	197.75
		Bal. p'd over,	581.15
	$1,234.50		$1,234.50

The Fund is indebted to the liberality of the Express and Overland Mail Company that the amount paid for transportation is less than one-third the usual rates. It is also proper to state here that a number of the subscribers have insisted on accepting less copies than they were entitled to, conditioned that the remainder be sold again, so to speak, for the benefit of the authoress.—In this and other ways the enterprise was met on every hand in a spirit of kindness and encouragement, a fact which greatly lessened the duties and responsibilities of those having charge of the business portion of the programme.

From the River.

W. F. Cloud, Maj. Gen. K. S. Militia, is raising a regiment of Mounted Minute Men to do duty in case of Indian trouble. . . . The river is in good boating condition, and the returning mountain boats are arriving daily. . . . The appointment of Major Ross, as senator in place of Jim Lane, fails to give general satisfaction.

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION VEDETTE.]

1000 Indian Scouts to be Mounted.

European Affairs.

Popularity of the Fenian Cause.

Disorganizing Situation of Affairs in Louisiana.

Pacific Delegates to the Philadelphia Convention.

Washington, August 4.

Rumors have been circulating for several days that attempts were being made to cause the removal of Secretary McCulloch, and it is now pretty well understood that the movement dates from Wall street and is based on purely financial grounds. No name of a successor is mentioned, and, indeed, success is hardly probable.

Secretary of War has issued an order for mounting one thousand Indian scouts; namely, six hundred on the Plains and two hundred each on the Pacific coast and Texas.

A London letter says of the attitude of European potentates, the actual question is with Austria to consent to resign all power, all right in Germany and leave Prussia supreme controller of 40,000,000 Germans. Consenting to this Austria may have peace with an empire of 33,000,000 people. If she will not consent then Prussia will endeavor to excite revolution in Hungary, and will do her worst to blot Austria from the map of Europe.

The Emperor of France, a few weeks ago, insisted upon Austria being maintained as a German power, now he appears to have revoked that part of his programme, and urges Austria to accept the terms of peace offered by Prussia and Italy.

Russia, also, which a few weeks ago seemed to sympathize with Austria, has become friendly to Prussia, and last night, in the British House of Commons, there was a regular glorification for Count Bismark and the success of the Prussian army.

Three months ago there was scarcely one to take the side of Prussia.

There is evidently great confusion at Vienna, and they are so hotly pressed they cannot get time to deliberate calmly. Have you noticed the rapid conversion of the English press to German unity? That poisoned gift of Venetia has worked remarkably. France hung out all her flags and placarded the results in large letters, to show the grand position of the Emperor, but the people of all Germany have shown their disgust at the idea of the French protectorate, and Bismark has become stronger than ever so, but he has refused the programme with impunity and submitted his own.

Chicago, August 4.

The Cincinnati Commercial's correspondent telegraphs from New Orleans, the 3d, that there have been no new riots of any importance, although minor difficulties were constantly occurring. Too much blame has been laid on the negroes by Southern accounts. The special police force should bear the blame first. A fair statement of affairs could not be got through, the secessionists were carefully guarding the Telegraph Office. An unhappy condition of political affairs exists everywhere throughout Louisiana. The rigid enforcement of the Civil Rights law by Commissioner Shannon, whom Judge Abell attempted to repress a few weeks ago, when he was himself repressed by Sheridan, caused deep ill feeling, and the call of the convention caused bloodshed as soon as it was known that the President would sustain the courts. Judge Abell having already declared on the bench that the members should be arrested, Louisiana is ripe for war or reconstruction.

San Francisco, July 31.

The steamer Oriflamme, which left Portland on the evening of July 24th, arrived here this forenoon. She brings $144,000 in treasure.

Messrs. Shafter & Hyde[illegible] commenced claim to the Board of Supervisors this evening for $28,000 for legal services in defending actions against the city in the matter of city slip lots in 1861.

A dispatch was received in this city from New York, conveying the sad intelligence of the death of Dr. H. M. Sharlach. He was reckoned among the prominent physicians of this city, and had enjoyed an extensive practice for a number of years.

The Union County Convention met last night this evening, pursuant to adjournment. H. M. Hale was nominated for Auditor; Charles R. Story for Tax Collector; Geo. Oxford for Street Superintendent and Wm. A. Charles for Public Administrator.

At three minutes past 2 o'clock this morning the night watchman at the Metropolitan Theatre discovered dense volumes of smoke issuing from the rear of the basement of the adjoining building, corner of Montgomery and Jackson streets, and immediately gave the alarm. The engines were promptly on hand, and in a few minutes several streams of water were directed into the basement through holes cut in the sidewalk, and the fire was soon apparently subdued.—Once in a while the smoke would increase, when renewed efforts on the part of the firemen would apparently quench the flames, until it became apparent that the smoke was only from the dying embers. With this idea many of the spectators went home. Their security, however, was but fancied, for the fire fiend was but resting and regaining more strength for another contest, which commenced about daylight, when the sleeping flames awoke with renewed vigor, and in a few minutes the whole interior of the building was in flames. The fire burst forth through the floors of the United States District and Circuit Court-rooms, leaping and darting upward until it had forced its way through the roof, and the dull leaden dawn was lighted into a ruddy glow by its heavenward leaping. The transition was so sudden that the spectators were amazed and bewildered, and it at once became evident that the whole interior of the building must be destroyed. The whole force of the Department was then centered upon the fiery vortex, but not until a late hour this morning had the fire been extinguished. The outer walls of the building are still standing, apparently uninjured, while the offices and rooms about the sides facing Jackson and Montgomery streets are not burned, but where the United States Court-rooms were is now an amphitheatre filled with charred timbers and smoking ruins. The records of the Court are fortunately saved, mainly through the extraordinary exertions of Captain Lees and Fire Marshal Durkee. The losses are not as yet ascertained, but will probably exceed $50,000.

Dodge's Reducing and Amalgamating Works.

We spoke briefly a few days since of Dodge's reducing works, with the intention of speaking again more fully of them. They are now in excellent running order. They consist first of a furnace in which to dry, not roast, the ores. From this they pass into one of his breakers or crushers. As the ores leave this, a portion is very fine, while other portions are coarse; it is therefore passed over a sive which permits the fine to pass through and conveys the coarse along to a set of Cornish rollers, through which it passes. The whole is then taken up by elevators, similar to those used in a flouring mill, which conveys it to grinders, which in shape and style are similar to burrs used for grinding corn and wheat, for grinding surfaces. Franklinite iron shoes and dies are used. This grinding machine makes seventy revolutions per minute. From the grinders, the dry pulverized ore, now of the consistency of the finest flour passes into a current of water and into the amalgamators, where every particle of ore is forced to pass through the quicksilver. The only point in the amalgamation consists not in chemicals used, nor in roasting, but in the fineness of the reduction and forcing it through the quicksilver. So much for the mode. The all-important part is the result. Many fine-looking modes have been introduced, which in working have proved valueless, because they did not save the gold. The results as they come to us in this case, vouched by some of our best miners, are as follows:

From a lot of second class ore, a cord was run in one of the best stamp mills in the country, yielding eighty-eight dollars. From the same lot, a cord was run through Dodge's works, giving two hundred and twenty dollars, or two and a third times the amount obtained in the stamp mill, and being ninety per cent. of the assayed value. Six tons were then run from a given lot of ore, by Mr. Dodge, yielding two hundred and sixty dollars. As the ore was being crushed, samples for assay were taken every fifteen minutes to secure an average result. The assay gave the value of the six tons as three hundred and six dollars, the result obtained by Dodge being eighty-five per cent. of the amount contained in the ore. Really the result was a little better than this, for there was less than six tons of the ore. Many other lots have been made but recently of ore of new lodes. The capacity of the works is reported at a cord, or eight tons per day, and are said to require about the power employed in driving a twelve stamp mill. The works are in constant operation and are intended to be kept so. These results are of course perfectly satisfactory, and if obtained day after day, and week after week, as we presume they may be, can not fail of making this machinery a universal favorite. We are particularly glad to be able to chronicle this result, as Mr. Dodge is a Coloradian.—Colorado Register.

The Daily Union Vedette

Local and Miscellaneous.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The VEDETTE is the pioneer daily newspaper of Utah. Its immense circulation in every mining camp and city of Montana and Idaho (to which it gives the telegraphic dispatches a week in advance of the Pacific papers,) makes it the most advantageous medium for advertising in these flourishing Territories.

G. GOLDEN, Jr., is the Agent for the VEDETTE for subscriptions and advertisements through the Pacific States and Territories.

Col. Hawkins, the well known Union orator, is in the State of Nevada, delivering lectures.

PERSONAL.—General P. E. Connor returned from Stockton on Sunday night. He was accompanied by Captain Albert Brown, who went to Pahranagat with Judge Lawrence.

SOME excitement was created in the streets last evening by two runaways.—No damage done.

YESTERDAY we had the pleasure of meeting Major Mellen, of the 6th U. S. Cavalry, who is en route to join his regiment, which is now in Texas. He is accompanied on his trip "across the continent" by Henry Pierce, Esq., of San Francisco.

ABOUT 75 convicts were discharged from the State Penitentiary at Richmond, Va., on the 20th ult., under the recent order from the War Department, directing the release of prisoners convicted by military tribunals.

A U. S. steam tug lately arrived at Fortress Monroe loaded with coffins. It is in contemplation to gather together the remains of Union soldiers scattered in various parts of the State of Virginia, and re-inter them in the cemeteries at Yorktown.

PROGRESSING.—The engineers of the Union Pacific Railroad, Eastern Division, it seems, have crossed the Kaw at Fort Riley, and are pushing out this way. Col. Fisher and party, says the Junction Union, are encamped within a stone's throw of our office, and as we go to press we see them measuring off and staking, along the Smoky hill, the permanent location of the Union Pacific Railroad.

WE learn by a private letter from Washington that the J. E. Smith who has just been appointed Collector of Internal Revenue for this Territory is General John E. Smith, of Galena, Illinois, who during the war commanded a division in the Mississippi valley, under General Grant. We are pleased to see this disposition on the part of our Government to appoint ex-army officers to public positions in this territory. They generally belong to that class of men who see things in their true light and cannot be deterred from doing their duty by the threats or cajolery of traitors, even though they are rich, and influential for the time being.

BRIGHAM'S LAST PROPHECY.—Sunday afternoon, as the services at the Tabernacle were approaching a close, there was a prospect of an immediate shower, which caused several of the females to leave. The Prophet took a survey of the heavens, and with due prophetic dignity announced that it would not rain for the space of thirty minutes, which of course reassured all. But in less than five minutes, even before the congregation was fairly outside the walls, the rain was pouring down in torrents, much to the disgust and amazement of the "faithful," who incurred a serious loss in the millinery and dry goods line.

From Idaho.

The following letter to the Avalanche is the latest phase of the Owyhee Indian war we have seen:

Camp McDermitt, Nevada,
July 14th, 1866.

We fall in here to-day for provisions and horseshoes. Col. Jennings, myself, Major Hill, Cutler and Henderson, came here and left the command about twenty miles from this place. We are now loading up ten days' rations for one hundred and twenty-five mounted men. We are cooking by Winnemucca's fires. We have invited him to fight us and let him choose the ground, but we have not been able to bring him to a stand yet. He would not stand on the famous Marshall field. We run him over it, and he is going toward Queen River Mountains, and throwing away everything that they can go without. They are but a few miles ahead of us, about three hundred strong, and a good deal of stock. Our animals are so sore-footed that it makes everything go slow. The boys are in good spirits and keen for a fight. We have lived on raw bacon and cold bread for a week. Col. Baker, of this post, is a brick; he has rendered us all the assistance in his power and filled our requisitions in one hour's time, and is going with us with twenty-five of his command mounted. I think we have got all the Owyhee Indians in one band in our front, and I think we will cook their goose when we overtake them. The Indians are eating three or four horses each day. Their scouts are daily in sight. We will move at half past three in the morning. I will return to camp to-night about midnight. Col. Jennings will come on with the soldiers from this post, and we will get together south of Summit Springs.

Yours truly,
O. M. JOHNSON.

GENERAL MEAGHER.—Can any one tell us where is General Thomas Francis Meagher? We heard he was in town, but have not seen him, nor seen any one who has had that pleasure. The guns "stand ready for cooling strokes when worn in the chase"—and so forth.—N. Y. Citizen.

The Proposed Armistice.

(From the New York Tribune.)

The latest European accounts which we publish this morning, and which are one day later than the advices brought by the Persia, report the acceptance by Prussia and Italy of the proposed armistice. This news, however, is not official, and lacks, we think, confirmation, especially as it does not well agree with semi-official statements of the Prussian Government.

In the meantime, it may already be regarded as certain that the cession of Venetia to France means a new combination in the German-Italian war. The very acceptance of the proposed cession by France would make it certain that Austria in exchange, received very positive assurances of French sympathy and support, if not benefit with Prussia. This supposition is strengthened by the accounts from Vienna and Paris. An official paper of Vienna tells us that the Emperor had been for some time intending to make this offer to France, in order thus to obtain a separate peace with Italy, and be thereby enabled to use his whole army against Prussia.—Dispatches from Paris state that, when Italy and Prussia hesitated to adopt the proposed armistice, the French Government ordered her fleet to take formal possession of Venice, and the French had 30,000 troops all along their frontier, and that she warned the Italians not to attack a part of what was now French territory. The semi-official papers began to take, in a very conspicuous manner, side with Austria against Prussia, and to demonstrate that a dismemberment of Austria would not be in the interest of France.

The next arrival from Europe will probably give us authentic news of the acceptance or rejection of the armistice. In the present stage of the negotiations, it looks as though France had agreed with Austria upon an attempt to detach Italy from the alliance with Prussia, and to leave Austria not only at liberty to continue the war against Prussia, but to give her in this war at least the moral aid of France.

A longer continuance of the war among the German States would, of course, lead to new exertions of each of the contending Powers to gain the friendship of France, and to an emulation to make to France the most advantageous offers of territorial aggrandizement in exchange for her aid.

From Montana.

FROM BENTON.—Capt. Nick Wall and Mr. Broadwater arrived from the head of navigation on Thursday. They made the trip through in the remarkably quick time of one and a half days.—They bring the latest news. The "Lucile" and "Gallatin" are still lying at Benton, and rapidly filling up with parties returning to the States. The "Marion" got aground some thirty miles below, and her passengers were obliged to retrace their steps to Benton. She subsequently became a complete wreck. Her machinery and furniture were taken out and hauled to Benton. The hull will prove a total loss, as it cannot be stirred from its present position, and must remain to be torn to pieces when the ice breaks up in the spring. A detachment of the Montana troops from the post at the mouth of the Judith river, were in Benton on Tuesday, looking up deserters. Col. Reeves has returned down the river, leaving his command in charge of a Major, who does not, of course, feel authorized to change the location of the troops. Gen. Meagher has returned to Benton, after an unsuccessful mission to the Judith.

LATER.—Parties who left Benton on Thursday morning say that the "Lucile" has concluded to leave August 5th, instead of September 1st, as previously announced. Ladies intending to return to the States are advised to proceed to Benton as early as possible, in order to secure state-rooms. Extra coaches will leave the Benton stage office until Friday next.—Republican 28th ult.

TO COUNCIL BLUFFS BY RAIL.—The Northwestern Railroad Company have pledged themselves to the citizens of Council Bluffs to complete their line to that point by the 1st of January, 1867, on condition that the Council Bluffs people shall do certain things, viz:

1. To donate to that railroad eighty acres of land, for depot purposes, adjoining the town.

2. To pay the company a bonus of $30,000 to help meet the expense of transporting iron up the river from St. Joseph.

4. To secure the right of way, free of cost, from Council Bluffs to the line of Harrison County, a distance of some twenty miles.

The citizens complied with these conditions without hesitation or delay. This action settles the terminus of the road at Council Bluffs, which is nearly opposite Omaha, where the Pacific Road commences. In less than six months the trains will be running from Chicago to Council Bluffs, 468 miles, without change of cars. Crossing the river at that point, the passenger will speed on 200 miles further to Ft. Kearney. By the 1st of January, 1867, the Chicago Tribune will be laid on the breakfast tables of the people of Omaha and Council Bluffs on the morning after its publication, and ten hours later at Ft. Kearney, or at ten time, 400 miles west of Chicago.—Chicago Tribune.

R. H. HOWELL, President pro tem. of the Convention which framed the present Free State Constitution of Louisiana (and which adjourned subject to call), summons that body to meet in the City of New Orleans on the 30th inst., to ratify the Constitutional Amendment adopted by the present Congress. The Governor is requested meantime to order elections in those districts which, being under Rebel sway, chose no delegates to the Convention as originally organized.

We have private intelligence that the Unionists of Louisiana, having endured a full year of Rebel domination, are ready to rise as one man and succeed. They know that they are a large majority of the entire people, and they mean to be respected. Accordingly, we expect great good from the reassembling of the Constitutional Convention.—N. Y. Tribune.

ROBBED.—We are informed that Mr. Phelps and lady, who left Lehi for Salt Lake City, about two weeks ago, were robbed of about seventy hundred dollars. Also, that Dan O'Connel, who took his departure last week, came in contact with road agents.—Union, 28th ult.

A CITY paper says the Mississippi is drying up, year by year, and on that account urges the building of railroads.
